Leadership Conference 2017

JANUARY 26

6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

As United Methodists we are a conferring people. We find our great strength in gathering together to discuss how to express our faith in today's world.

John Wesley had a habit of gathering the Methodists each year and asking, "What do we teach?" and "How do we live as Christians in the world?" Then each year the Methodist Church would organize for ministry seeking to follow God's call to serve in Jesus' name.

On January 26 all church leaders, on every committee and board, and all members of the Saint Paul family are invited to gather for a time of conferencing.

Please begin thinking and praying about...

- Where is God calling our church to minister this year?
- What needs are we called to meet in our mission field?
- How can we best meet the needs of our congregation?
- What are our current staffing, program and facility needs?

Then, let's bring our ears and our ideas together on January 26 and listen to God and one another.
